

Business Meeting December 3rd, 2023

Seneschal

- Inn at Crown tournament - brought in about $40-50 ahead
- Leftover soup from the Inn was served at Grand Meander on Dec 4th
- Good reports from doing Inn
 - People liked the food
- We need to stop being scared of being great
- Torquil did a big motivational speech that if you missed it, I am sure he would be willing to summarize

Exchequer

- We made $40-50 from doing the Inn at Crown Tournament
- Still going through the rules
- We will need a deputy when we are a full shire

Herald

- 2 new submissions were made at the Crown Tournament for both names and devices

Knights Marshal

- Don't really have one
- More gear was gifted to the group by Dirk at the Crown Tournament - yay!

Minister of Youth

- Nothing to report

Arts and Science Minister

- Queen's Prize coming up in Spring (we now know it will be in April)
- Classes for Clothier's seminar are posted and they are looking for more classes - sign up to teach something!
- There has been a call for online newcomer classes
 - If you have an idea of something you want to see or teach, do it!
- A&S meeting this month is on growing veggies in the winter and precedent by Mari
- Keep working on largesse for when we become a shire
- Think of ideas for when we become a shire, things we can do or teach

Chronicler

- Newsletter posted on Dec. 1st
- Memo to self: need to include the recipe for the no-bake cookies we brought to Inn for Crwon Tournament- they were a hit!
- I received feedback on doing a good job on my newsletter
- We will be doing an email listing as soon as I have an official email so it is not tied to my personal email
- Keep sending me new things to include in the upcoming newsletter!

Old Business

- Inn went well
- Crown asks us to check our order of precedence online and look at your Calontir Wiki and update it

New business

- We put in a bid for the Queen's Prize but it was not accepted
 - That just means we get to do our own thing this spring for an event!
